Chairman's Message

ITRHD was set up in 2011 at the initiative of a group of very dedicated individuals who were aware of India's rich rural heritage, both tangible and intangible, and felt that not enough had been done to document and conserve the vast treasures lying undiscovered in our rural areas. It was obvious that further efforts were needed to bring about meaningful development of the rural sector, and we felt that conservation and the sustainable preservation of heritage resources could act as a catalyst for such development. We now have completed or have ongoing projects in 8 States.

Beginning with no funds, we started with donations from individual and corporate members. As our credibility became established, we were able to attract more donations, some CSR support, and funds from several State Governments for specific projects. In 2017 the Ministry of Culture GOI awarded us a corpus grant of Rs.5 crores with the stipulation that only the interest could be utilised for projects relating to the objectives of the Trust, but not for administrative expenses. And last year the XVth Finance Commission recommended that the Ministry of Finance provide funds for four conservation projects (three in Punjab and one in Haryana) totaling Rs.38 crores, and specifying that they were to be implemented by ITRHD. Due to financial constraints the recommended funding was not forthcoming, but the recommendation by the Finance Commission was nevertheless a big feather in our cap.

Details on our Trustees, projects, publications, events and activities as well as our Vision for the Future can be found on our website (www.itrhd.com).

We have had our ups and downs and faced turbulent storms, but none so challenging as the onslaught of Covid. We have survived but Covid led to a slowing down of most of our activities. The biggest setback was to our finances. While the interest from the Corpus Grant of Rs.5 crores kept some of our ongoing projects alive, funds from other sources for new projects slowed down or temporarily stopped. This affected us badly as 10% of the amounts sanctioned for such projects took care of our administrative expenses. With the drying up of this source we ran into serious difficulties, and to tide over this crisis we had to resort to drastic economy measures. One of them being giving up our office accommodation (Rs.70,000 per month) and accepting the offer of the Chairman to move to his personal residence till the situation improved. Some staff members were absorbed in project budgets, to save on salaries. The situation now is not as grim as it was. We have signed an MoU with the UP Government under which funds will be provided to ITRHD for documentation of rural heritage and other activities related to rural tourism etc. Harsh Lodha also supported us through his Charitable Trust. Another donation has been from a good friend of mine, Raj Bhargava. ANI has also very generously provided funding for our annual publications and Hindustan Gum and Chemicals Ltd is also providing support under their CSR programmes for rural development activities in Barmer and Bhiwani. We are preparing a proposal to a major public sector unit, and negotiations are on with other State Governments.

It is a matter of great satisfaction and pride that in these 11 years of our existence we have achieved much. A brief summary of our activities will indicate the broad sweep of our activities.

Primary Education

A primary school providing free education has been set up in village Hariharpur, in UP's Azamgarh District. It was initially housed in a rented building but with availability of some funds from the British Council, and with the help of a team of young architects from abroad, we were able to construct some classrooms. However, to meet the requirement for additional accommodation, and apart from mobilising our internal sources of funding, we were fortunate to secure some support by the Bracewell-Smith Trust in UK. Construction has now started and hopefully we look forward to enlisting the support of other donors to fulfill our dream of having a complete building for the school.

The school, it may be mentioned includes students from different communities in the village both boys and girls. Since most are from economically deprived backgrounds, we provide mid-day meals, uniforms, books, medical check-ups etc. Recently a small grant enabled us to purchase tablets for the students' use. The teachers, educated young women from the village, are periodically given intensive training in Delhi and Varanasi. A leading public school in Delhi (Salwan Public School) as well as a senior education specialist (Mondira Bharadwaj) provide this training and others are brought in as and when required.

Annual operating costs are contributed by our members, and we are raising a corpus to provide permanent stability.

Support to Music and Craft Traditions

Hariharpur, where the school is located, is one of three extraordinary villages that form a "Creative Cluster." Hariharpur itself has a classical music tradition of 300-400 years, and every Brahmin family in the village has classical musicians from young children to grandparents. The nearby village of Nizamabad is the home of potters producing black clay pottery. It is the only village in the country that possesses this unique 400 year old tradition. The third village of Mubarakpur is famous for its hand-woven silk saris - a tradition 400 years old. In order to provide marketing and technical support to the craftsmen, Azamgarh Festivals are organised every year in Delhi and Lucknow where the crafts persons sell directly to the customers without the intervention of middlemen. All the expenses are borne by the Trust and all the sale proceeds are kept by the craftspersons. Similarly the musicians of Hariharpur are provided a platform to perform before sophisticated audiences and over the years they have acquired an identity of the Hariharpur Gharana. The potters and weavers receive substantial sales from these events and with the feedback from the customers are able to bring about upgradation of their products; the musicians receive new patronage and appreciation from sophisticated audiences.

The musicians of Hariharpur received wide publicity recently when the Chief Minister of the State visited the village and lavished them with praise.

The Nizamabad potters also received a big boost when the Prime Minister of India selected their black pottery to take as a gift to the Prime Minister of Japan while attending the G 7 Summit in Germany.

Under an MoU partnership with the State Government of UP, we are developing plans for rural tourism in several areas. Our Azamgarh “Creative Cluster” villages are one of the areas involved, and our team has recently completed an extremely comprehensive detailed project for this.

Restoration of Sheikh Musa’s Dargah

NUH-Haryana, 2012-18 - completed

Funded by Haryana WAQF Board, Governor of Haryana, Archaeological Survey of India

Known as an architectural marvel (for its unique shaking minarets and for its perfect blend of Mughal and Rajput styles) as well as a popular pilgrimage centre, the 700 year old Dargah was in a totally dilapidated condition with the core of the structure in danger of imminent collapse. The entire Dargah has been restored and strengthened and has regained its role within the community. Later plans are for landscaping and an interpretation centre.

Rakhigarhi Indus Valley Civilization site

Another of our very first ventures involved us in two small villages in the State of Haryana about 5 hours drive from Delhi. Excavations there have uncovered evidence of an extremely important early Indus Valley Civilization, said to predate even that of Mohenjo-Daro. Our lobbying efforts with the Govt. have resulted in the construction of a museum at the site. We have been working on possible plans to restore some old havelis (mansions) in the two villages of Rakhigarhi and our work with the local panchayat leader has inspired the creation of a small tourism resort.

Comprehensive Documentation of rural heritage in selected areas of the States of UP, Kerala and Telangana.

On the basis of an MoU signed with UP Govt. (Department of Tourism and Culture), documentation of architectural heritage in the villages of Ballia and Varanasi in UP has been completed and report is under preparation. Similarly with support from the Kerala Institute of Travel and Tourism (KITTS) a compressive documentation of the architectural heritage of Anjunad area of Kerala was completed. A detailed study of Poochampalli village in Telangana known for its exquisite Handloom products was also completed. Further details and reports on the Kerala and Telangana projects can be seen on our website. The Poochampali (Telangana) report can be accessed at <https://www.itrhd.com/magazine/it.pdf> and the Anjunad (Kerala) report at <https://www.itrhd.com/magazine/Anjunad.pdf>.

The Royal Gardens of Rajnagar

Rajnagar (outskirts of Khajuraho, Madhya Pradesh):
2018-ongoing, Funded by Belgian Chapter ITRHD

Created in the 18th century by the royal family of Chhatarpur, the 15 surviving gardens had almost disappeared when they were discovered by the head of our Belgian chapter, Geert Robberechts. They include numerous heritage structures, including temples, kothis, steppe wells and a large fort. The comprehensive project is restoring the gardens as sustainable sources of local. Income and the structures and the entire area as part of a total rural tourism development effort. In April 2022 the Visitors' Centre was formally inaugurated. We are currently exploring partnership with a prominent hotel chain for restoration of the Fort and adaptation as a heritage hotel

Traditional Folk Music Compendium

Pan India (22 States)

2020-2022 (completed), Funded by : HT Parekh Foundation and Give India Foundation

Under the direction of the well known musician and musicologist Anurag Shankar and his Culture Grind company, a project was completed on “Conservation and Compilation of Folk songs and Traditional Music from across India and distribution through digital recording”. The project covered 22 States and resulted in an informative brochure containing cassette recordings of the songs and music documented. The brochure and all the recordings can be accessed through a link on our website. Or click on <https://folk-music.itrhd.com/>.

Living Cultural Heritage Museum in Kohima, Nagaland

In 2015 ITRHD with support from the Asian Cultural Council in New York secured the services of a consultant, Augusto Villalon from Philippines for drawing up plans for setting up of a living Cultural Heritage Museum in Kohima, Nagaland. After visits to various sites in the State and discussions with the State Govt. officials, a very detailed Project proposal was submitted to the State Government. For purposes of implementation, the Proposal envisaged action on the part of the State Government on a number of issues primarily relating to infrastructure development and by the Government of India on matters concerning them. Recommendations were also made where international agencies could also be approached for necessary support primarily in areas relating to equipment and technical expertise. Necessary action was in the first instance to be initiated by the State Government with follow up support being provided by ITRHD. Unfortunately despite reminders, the State Government did not take any action and a very good project with vast possibilities despite considerable spade work failed to take off. One cannot but remember the saying that you can take a horse to the water but cannot make it drink. So true in the present case.

Maluti Living Temple Village Restoration

At Maluti Village, Jharkhand, Funded by: Govt. of Jharkhand - Rs.7 crores

Described by National Geographic as one of the world's 12 most important heritage sites in danger of vanishing, this small village is an extremely precious site, with 62 terracotta temples (17th-18th centuries) remaining of 108 original structures. The close integration of temples and residences makes it a unique example of a living temple village.

With the support of the State Government, ITRHD has to date restored 42 of the temples, improved basic village infrastructure and facilities, trained residents, and is developing a plan for cultural and religious tourism, to provide a sustainable future for the community as well as saving the heritage.

Barmer Livelihood Enhancement Crafts Initiative

Another of our focus areas is the Barmer area of western Rajasthan, an extremely rich cultural landscape in terms of heritage, history, environment, and craft/music skills, but one whose rural residents suffer from major problems in development and livelihood opportunities. With CSR support from one company, we have been tackling this in several ways. On the home page of the website you will find links to several of these recent initiatives, with videos and photos. The main ones are:

- Promotion of traditional crafts through exhibitions in Delhi and Jodhpur's Mehrangarh Fort;
- Preservation of traditional craft skills through intensive workshops in embroidery and applique work, two products for which Barmer was formerly famous. Concentrating on young women from the artisan communities, these workshops have proved immensely popular and are making good strides in sustainable survival of the skills.
- Preservation of the famous langa and manganiyar music traditions. A "revolutionary" initiative has been the organization of two intensive workshops for young women from the musician communities, which have always been almost exclusively male.

To our gratification, these have been extremely popular, even with male members of the communities.

We currently are developing a major proposal for partnership with a public sector company for comprehensive, long-term development of specific craft/music villages.

Barmer (Rajasthan) Environmental Initiatives

With support from the CSR grant, and in partnership with the local government forest department, we have been able to implement substantial tree plantation campaigns in the villages, including one to provide fodder for the decreasing blackbuck wildlife population. We have helped develop botanical gardens in a school and a college, and have helped in packaging and distributing thousands of sets of traditional medicinal plants to village residents.

Birsa Munda Jail Restoration

At Ranchi, Jharkhand – Rs.9 crores, 2018-2019 (completed), Funded by: Ministry of Tribal Affairs, GOI; JUIDCO, Govt. of Jharkhand

We were asked to take up the restoration of the 19th century jail which had housed the legendary tribal freedom fighter Birsa Munda, in preparation for creation of a tribal museum. The building was in extremely dilapidated condition, with extensive vegetation penetration, water seepage, and cracked and broken walls. The project was completed before the deadline in less than a year.

Bhiwani Heritage Structures and Livelihood Enhancement

At Bhiwani, Haryana, Funded by: Hindustan Gum & Chemicals Ltd.

With CSR support from HG&C, two initiatives were undertaken in Bhiwani, Haryana. Two traditional jhoads (water structures) which had deteriorated into dumping grounds have been restored, and the historic structures within them converted to community use. At the same time, a comprehensive skill training program was developed for local residents.

Rural Tourism Development

Many of our projects include development of rural tourism as a long-term goal. Those under active development are:

- Azamgarh “Creative Cluster” mentioned above.
- Shivpur, Uttar Pradesh. This is an extremely interesting area, with a wide array of heritage and natural resources. The descendant of the local royal family and his wife, experienced professionals, have returned to the village to develop it as a model of rural tourism focusing on sustainability and local livelihood generation.
- Barmer, Rajasthan. Building on the work we have been doing in Barmer during the last three years, we are now developing a plan for partnership with a public sector unit for comprehensive development, including creation of rural tourism infrastructure.
- Royal Gardens of Rajnagar, as described above, is adjacent to the major tourist center of Khajuraho, and thus development of tourism infrastructure is a major component of our plans.
- Maluti Living Temple Village, Jharkhand. This major project, supported by the Jharkhand State Government, is restoring 62 terra-cotta temples (17th-19th centuries) in this extremely rare example of a living temple village. Plans are underway to develop religious and cultural tourism for local livelihood generation.

Setting up of an Academy for conservation of rural heritage with focus on Buddhist heritage

A recent project that ITRHD has taken up relates to the setting up of a training academy for conservation of Buddhist Heritage in rural areas. This would attract trainees not only from India but from countries having significant Buddhist tradition. Before embarking on this project we thought it would be useful to organise an international conference on the subject to elicit the views of experts not only from India but from countries having a Buddhist tradition. This conference is proposed to be organised in partnership with Gautam Buddha University (GBU) in Noida. Considerable preliminary work has been done and a number of experts from India and abroad have been able to provide necessary inputs. The conference is proposed to be held close to end of 2023 and is a first step in our eventual goal of establishing a regional center for professional training in rural heritage conservation.

This initiative is under the direction of our distinguished Vice-Chairman Prof. AGK Menon. An Advisory Committee of Buddhist experts from India and abroad has been established, and held its first online meeting earlier this month, and Delhi-based Ambassadors from the region are involved and assisting. Shri Pravin Srivastava, former Chief Secretary to Tripura and former DG-ASI has very kindly agreed to take on the responsibilities of organising the conference as Chief Coordinator.

Cultural Festivals

We organize annual AZAMGARH FESTIVALS in upscale venues in Delhi and Lucknow, featuring the artisans and musicians of Azamgarh. ITRHD covers all expenses; the artisans keep all proceeds. And the musicians perform to enthusiastic audiences, gaining new appreciation and future patronage.

Until the pandemic, we had partnered with the Government of Punjab in organizing annual cultural festivals in Patiala. Hopefully as the situation normalizes, these will resume.

Youth programmes

Active youth programs in several project areas, especially Azamgarh, have included the formation of Youth Heritage Clubs, skill development programs, heritage walks, tree plantation drives, sporting events, and programs involving civic consciousness.

Publications

To date, we have published 11 volumes of Explore Rural India, a journal with articles by Indian and international scholars and specialists, 5 special publications (on Traditional Cuisine, Rural Sports and Games, Oral traditions, Myths and Legends, Tribal Cultures, and Traditional Healing Systems.) We are preparing the next issue of our journal Explore Rural India, with contributions from experts in relevant fields from both India and abroad.

Special Events

Each year on Mahatma Gandhi's death anniversary, 30 January, we honour his memory with a RURAL TOURISM DAY. For this, experts in various relevant fields give special presentations, which are extremely well received.

Other events (such as ITRHD's 10th Anniversary on 23 June 2021) were held online to enable both Indian and international Members to attend. A Lifetime Achievement Award was presented posthumously to renowned architect Vikram Lall, and ITRHD's Vision for the Future document was released.

From time-to-time conferences and symposia are organised on special subjects to create awareness.

The ITRHD Team -

During these very difficult times, we have been able to survive and even accomplish some new things only because of the support and untiring efforts of our Trustees, honorary officers, members, sponsors, friends, and staff. I cannot mention all of them here, but must single out a few for special mention.

Our Trustees are bulwarks of strength. Bajji, Maharaja Gaj Singh of Jodhpur, has been with us from the beginning, and this year was especially involved in advising on our Barmer activities. His presence as Chief Guest, and thoughtful address, made our 10th Anniversary meeting on zoom a special event.

Yogendra Narain (former Secretary Defence and Secretary General Rajya Sabha) is our very active Vice Chairman and also Chairman of the Finance Committee. He has also been a great help in raising financial resources, and I depend on him greatly. Our two Vice-Chairpersons also have actively contributed to our success. Prof. AGK Menon, supervises all our conservation projects, and has headed some crucial internal committees. Maureen Liebl, my anchor in life, plays a crucial role in many activities, and her professional experience in India and with international funding agencies is a great benefit, especially in project proposals and development.

It is with a sense of great sadness that we have to report the passing away of our Trustee Shri KL Thapar who was one of our pillars giving not only of his wisdom but donating generously to the building of a corpus for financing of the primary school set up by us in village Harihapur. It was also at his suggestion that ITRHD is pursuing the idea of setting up a training academy for conservation of rural heritage with focus on Buddhist Heritage. His role in building up the organisation cannot be over emphasised.

We were sad to lose another distinguished Founder Trustee, Shri Hasmukh Shah who despite ill-health was always available for consultations and advice.

Dr. D.V. Kapur is another extremely distinguished Trustee, as the Founder Chairman of the NTPC and Secretary in the Ministries of Power, Heavy Industry, and Chemicals & Petrochemicals. He has been with us in every meeting, ready with fresh ideas and solid advice based on his vast experience. He has also been generously contributing towards the primary school project at Harihapur.

In the cultural field, Anita Singh, has led in developing our music programs in Azamgarh and elsewhere, and in organizing our Patiala festivals. Laila Tyabji, one of India's leading crafts specialists, is always helpful in providing advice and guidance.

Amrita Singh, as Trustee and Co-Director of the Barmer Crafts Project, has shown extraordinary initiative in not only developing new initiatives, but in arranging for funding and implementation. Due to her efforts, our tree plantation and relief efforts in Barmer, as well as activities involving the crafts initiative, have been successful beyond all expectations.

SSH Rehman, Trustee and legendary hotelier, has helped generously in funding and in providing advice and hospitality. Naresh Arora continues to give us good guidance in all legal matters. P.R. "Kaku" Khanna, an eminent Chartered Accountant, and Ashwan Kapur, an extremely successful and creative businessman, have not only lent their weight to the Finance Committee but have been assets on the Board as well. Harsh Lodha, head of the Birla Corporation, readily agreed to come on our Board and gave us the start that we badly needed by getting three of his companies to become Corporate members at Rs.10 lacs each. In addition, one of his Bhiwani based companies has enabled us to embark on 3 projects by providing financial support under their CSR programme.

Apart from the Trustees, Archana Capoor, formerly C & MD of the Tourism Finance Corporation of India, serves as honorary Member Secretary of the Trust. She has shouldered a great responsibility, taking care of the finances of the Trust, overseeing administration, and ably organising various events.

One of our younger officers, Sangya Chaudhary as Editor of our Annual publications did a magnificent job in ensuring high standards. Because of her other current responsibilities, she has been unable to continue, but remains as Director to look after youth and development activities. Her position as Editor has again been entrusted to Asha Rani Mathur who as the first editor laid down the standards and set the ball rolling. For health reasons she was unable to continue, but we are happy that now she is able to take on the responsibility.

Rajendra Sharma (formerly with the Tourism Finance Corporation of India) as our Financial Advisor has provided us with invaluable support.

Apart from upgrading Amrita Singh to the position of Life Trustee we have inducted 3 distinguished persons also as Trustees - Shri S D Kapoor, former Chairman of MMTC; Shri Brahm Dutt, former Secretary to Govt. of India and Dr.Nagesh Kumar, Executive Director of Institute for Studies in Industrial Development who also spent many years with an UN organisation.

The eminent architect Shibam Ganju, continues his close engagement with the school in Hariharpur, and along with his associate Prateek, is involved in detailed planning for the school expansion. Preeti Harit, a young architect, has handled our conservation and documentation projects in Haryana and Kerala with great professionalism, and is undertaking new projects in UP. Another experienced conservation architect, Shaista Perveen, has been actively involved with activities relating to Azamgarh villages, and at present is working on behalf of ITRHD on a Rural Tourism Project for UP Govt. Her family roots in Azamgarh, in addition to her professional experience, have been extremely helpful. A husband and wife team of Pallavi D and Vipul Bhole (Tadaamyaham – The Design Studio) are engaged in preparation of a detailed proposal relating to comprehensive development of some villages in the Barmer region for securing CSR funding.

We recently have also been fortunate to be joined by Shaguna Gahilote, an education and cultural specialist with many years' experience with INTACH, UNESCO, the British Council, the Embassy of Belgium, and others. In an honorary capacity she has taken on responsibility for interaction with our HARTS (Heritage Ambassadors for Rural Tradition).

The HARTS are our eyes and ears in the field. As mentioned earlier, we have two extremely dedicated and active HARTS, Shreedeo Singh, based in Ranchi, who has been responsible for our major Jharkhand projects, and Yashovardhan Shandilya, consultant to the Barmer Crafts Initiative, who also serves as HART for the Barmer region, and with indefatigable energy, and complete dedication has been responsible for much of our success in Barmer. They have been joined by Zohra Chatterji, formerly Secretary in the Government of India, who is now based in Lucknow and has already initiated a major new rural tourism project.

Our Advisory Council Members, those both in India and abroad, contribute valuable guidance and support. Those include Ramesh Chandra, Nayana Goradia and Track Systems (I) Pvt.Ltd. Chennai. I should especially mention Rashmi Malik, Principal of the Salwan Public Schools, who is actively involved in developing our educational programs. Mondira Bhardwaj, a friend and colleague of long-standing, has devoted extraordinary assistance by training the teachers of the Hariharpur Primary School, including hosting them in her own home during Delhi training sessions.

Several other very experienced professionals have also joined us as advisors. I might mention especially Rajni Sibal Sekri, former senior bureaucrat, and Swapna Liddle, historian and heritage education specialist. Both are published authors and have already taken an active role. Siddhant Datta recently joined us as social media coordinator, and thanks to him, our presence on Instagram, LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook is rapidly growing.

Some of our international members and friends have given great support. Dame Fiona Reynolds, Chair of INTO (International National Trusts Organisation) graced the 10th Anniversary zoom with the opening address. Geoffrey Read, a long-time friend and supporter, He has taken on the responsibility for planning our venture into climate control activities. Geert Robberechts, the extremely active head of our Belgian chapter, has joined us in a formal partnership for the Royal Gardens of Rajnagar project. He gave a comprehensive online presentation on Sustainable Tourism in the area on our Rural Tourism Day in January. This can be accessed from the home page of our website. Naveen and Pushpa Kapur, old friends and colleagues in the US, sent a generous contribution for the Hariharpur school. As also Charles Lutyens, a golfer friend has also been very grateful. And Lady Nina Bracewell-Smith in the UK has recently become a major donor and supporter.

We have a very small but very dedicated staff taking care of our administrative functioning. Ambika Surendran, is our extremely efficient and dedicated Director &

Private Secretary. I depend on her for the tact and discretion with which she handles interactions with Trustees, Advisors and Members. Neeraj Ganotra, a man for all seasons, as Additional Private Secretary cheerfully shoulders many responsibilities and can be depended on to ensure smooth functioning. He is also our technical expert. Madhu Khatri as Director in charge of Projects has been coordinating myriad activities and can be depended on to handle difficult situations. She is calm and composed with a very helpful attitude. Recently she has moved to taking on responsibilities for educational programmes of ITRHD. Arvind Yadav, one of our earliest employees, has been actively involved with youth programmes, and field projects in Barmer, Azamgarh and Patiala. He is an asset to the organisation and works with great professionalism. Akash Thapa is a faithful and extremely helpful support in the office. Deepak Kumar Gond works as our Field Supervisor at Azamgarh.

Finally much of our success we owe to the financial support we have received for our projects from the State Governments of Jharkhand, UP, Punjab, Haryana and Telangana, from the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, who awarded us a grant of Rs.5 crores for our corpus, from the Archaeological Survey of India who gave a grant of Rs.10 lacs for a conservation project in Haryana, to the Haryana Waqf Board for support to the same project, and to the Ministry of Sports for supporting our publication on Rural Sports. In addition, the corporate sector and PSU's have responded to our appeal to sponsor special events. The generous CSR support we have received from Hindustan Gum & Chemicals Ltd., has enabled us to develop projects in Bhiwani (Haryana) and Barmer (Rajasthan). Our thanks also go out to the number of companies who very kindly agreed to support our publications through their advertising support. It would not have been possible for our publications to be so well received if it had not been for the excellent articles contributed by experts in different fields on non-payment basis. As mentioned above, Trustees K.L.Thapar and Habeeb Rehman have generously supported us, and a number of our members responded with great generosity to our Hariharpur school appeal.

To all, our heartfelt thanks.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Indian Trust for Rural Heritage and Development

Report on the Audit of Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Indian Trust for Rural Heritage and Development (the society), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2022, the Statement of Income & Expenditure and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements, read with other notes given thereto, give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- i) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Society as at 31st March 2022; and
- ii) in the case of the Income and Expenditure Account, of the deficit for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) issued by ICAI. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Society in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of financial statements, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the financial statements

Management of Society is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position and financial performance of the Society in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the accounting standards issued by ICAI, to the extent applicable. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records for safeguarding of the assets of the Society and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate implementation and maintenance of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Society's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Society or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. The Society's Management is responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process.

Auditors' responsibility for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatement can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements..

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Society's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Other matters

We report that:

- a) We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
- b) In our opinion proper books of account have been kept so far as appears from our examination of those books; and
- c) The Balance Sheet and Income and Expenditure Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of accounts;
